The Chief's Column - special contribution by David Kincaid, President, and Barbara Kincaid, Michigan Commissioner

To Clan Kincaid Members, Kinfolk and Friends,

We have been asked to submit an article on the outstanding events recently held in Scotland, particularly in Edinburgh at the Royal Military Tattoo. Barbara and David are pleased to share with you highlights of this memorable event when our Clan Chief, Madam Arabella Kincaid of Kincaid, was honored on 22 August, 2017, at Edinburgh Castle. This year's Tattoo's theme was "A Splash of Tartan".

On August 22nd at noon, we met at the Kirk of the Canongate, the parish church for Edinburgh Castle and Holyrood where Madam Arabella had arranged for a Clan Blessing. It was a lovely service where Madam Arabella's four eldest children sang "Amazing Grace" with their lovely voices adding a very touching moment to the occasion. That day was also Madam Arabella's birthday. Following the service clan members were invited to partake of a magnificent birthday cake in celebration of our dear Chief's special day. It was a joy and pleasure to personally meet many kinfolk in person and have an opportunity to converse and enjoy one another's company.

With much anticipation and excitement we gathered that evening at the cordon at Castle Hill on the Royal Mile. We walked up Hawk Hill to the Great Hall of Edinburgh Castle. The Kincaid tartan was abundantly represented by approximately forty people including Madam Arabella, her husband, Giles Inglis-Jones, and their five amazing children; Angus, Jessie, Ella, Dominic and Kalula. Also in our assemblage were Clan Kincaid members from the USA and Canada, with family and friends from England and Scotland. We were then escorted by Security into the Great Hall of the Castle where we viewed shields bearing the arms of the constables of the castle, including one of several Kincaids who held that post in the 1500's. They are all beautifully displayed around the upper walls of this most impressive room. We shared the room with members of the Maclaine clan, their Chief and contingency.

Greetings were extended to the clans and chiefs by the Chief Executive Producer of the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo, Brigadier David Allfrey. Both Clan Kincaid's Chief, Madam Arabella Kincaid of Kincaid, and Clan Maclaine's Chief, Lorne Maclaine of Lochbuie, addressed those gathered there in the Great Hall prior to our departure for the Castle.

The Regimental Sergeant Major mustered us into groups and gave detailed instruction as to what was expected of us. This gentleman demanded complete attention and commandeered James, a friend of Angus' to call out, "Stand By, Up!" which we followed with our hearty and boisterous shout of "Ahh Kincaid". It gave such a feeling of solidarity and pride that we felt our Kincaid ancestors were certainly proud of us for our obvious enthusiasm. We continued to call on James to "lead the cheer" for our Clan even after the performance when many of us gathered together.

As we began our approach on to the Esplanade we were greeted along the sidelines by applauding Jacobites. Most impressive groups of bagpipers and drummers ushered us inside the Esplanade in view of an audience of thousands from all over the world. The retinue moved onward toward the red carpet. One felt a true sense of Scottish pride with the accolades given to both honored clans and our Chiefs.

We were told that there had been no rain at any of the featured events from 4 August; however on 22 August we felt the blessing of a light "Scottish mist" which glistened in the lights on Bonnie Prince Charlie jackets, tartan plaid sashes and a sea of the vibrant green of our tartan clothing and accessories. It never did become a downpour and merely gave us the distinction of being the only clans of the monthly event (as of that late date) to have experienced an opportunity on how to "bend and flow with ease" as Madam Arabella so gracefully noted. Kincaids can adapt to conditions as necessary!

Madam Arabella, so elegant in her Clan Kincaid tartan dress coat, tartan beret with three eagle feathers and her regal demeanor, retraced her steps down the red carpet, joined by her husband, Giles, to meet the Lone Piper, who then offered the Quaich in a Gaelic toast to the audience, the Castle and the Chiefs. These honors were met with thundering applause from the audience. It was an occasion where we joyfully celebrated our kinship and pride of Scottish heritage—so very uplifting! We then dispersed to our seats to watch the amazing performances presented. Colored light displays on the castle during the presentation were followed by an impressive display of fireworks that brought the special tribute to a close. It was a moment to review that special phrase—"there are two kinds of people in the world, those who are Scottish and those who wish they were."

The next day many of us met to partake of a day trip to Kincaid House in Campsie near Stirling, with thanks to James Brisbin for arranging this informative and historic adventure. We were joined by Madam Arabella and her family and enjoyed a delicious and beautifully presented lunch at Kincaid House, followed by a drive to the Kincaid Cemetery in the Clachan of Campsie west of Lennoxton. There we met local Kincaids and learned of five Kincaid ladies from North Carolina USA who had recently visited the Cemetery. Then on to Lennox Castle. We explored the grounds of the castle and the ruins of nearby Woodhead House, which was the home of the Lennox family.

Our coach returned us to Edinburgh where we enjoyed more time there or continued our travels. It was an experience that will be remembered for many years to come.

Yours Aye,

David R. Kincaid, President
Barbara Kincaid, Michigan Commissioner

A Message from the President

It is my pleasure to congratulate and welcome Christopher (Topher) Kincaid to the position of Treasurer of Clan Kincaid Association International. Topher has been a member of Clan Kincaid for a number of years and has expressed a desire to take a more active role on our organization. He is a high school science teacher in Washington State.

He has held leadership positions in his community, and a welcome addition to the Clan Kincaid Board of Officers. It is also my pleasure to congratulate and welcome Hugh Kincaid as the Regional Commissioner for the States of Tennessee, Georgia and North Carolina. Hugh sponsored his first tent at the Smoky Mountain Scottish Festival and Games in Tennessee and won the Best Clan Tent Award. Hugh worked for Walt Disney World for forty-five years before retiring. He is a welcome addition to our team of Commissioners.

Clan Kincaid funds have been with the BB&T Bank because the past three treasurers and our Interim Treasurer have all lived in the State of Kentucky. Since BB&T is very local we have moved all of our funds, except the Wee Shopper funds, to Chase. There is a Chase Bank near our new Treasurer as well as near our Membership Secretary, Donna Knauss. This is important because all money for dues is sent to Donna.

The big Clan Kincaid event for the month of August was the Royal Military Tattoo held at the Edinburgh Castle in Scotland where our Chief, Madam Arabella was honored. I'm pleased that approximately 40 members and friends marched from the Edinburgh Castle to the Esplanade in support of our Clan Chief.

David R. Kincaid
President

She and her late husband, Lt. Duane Wade Main, were champion archers. Later in life she spent countless hours as a volunteer lobbyist working for the rights of the mentally ill.

Mary has two living daughters: Karen Joy Main [sons: Alan York and the late Bryan York] and Melody Main [children: Olivia (Kiespert) Breedlove, Baron Von Kiespert and Chevonne Kiespert].

Tips for living a long life - according to Mary: Avoid the sun, eat your vegetables, use Ponds cold cream nightly, don't drink alcohol and walk 20 minutes every day. This is working for her!

The happiest of birthdays to you, Mary!! You are an inspiration!

The 2017 Fergus Scottish Festival

By James Brisbin (L-91)

Plagued by years of rain that diminished the crowds and damped the spirits of all but the most hearty, The Fergus Scottish Festival again began with the threat of thunderstorms, lightning and possible tornadoes. The threat proved very real as a front swept through Friday evening with a tornado touching down just a few kilometers away in nearby Hawksville. Those responsible for the safety of patrons attending the ceilidh wisely elected to cancel the Friday evening activities. Fortunately, I heeded the warnings of the meteorologists and decided to skip the Clan Parade, the lighting hearth hosted by the Clan Chief Edward Stewart Dugald MacTavish and the performance of the Red Hot Chili Pipers.

Saturday morning dawned bright and beautiful with a promise of a warm sunny day. The Clan Kincaid tent was set up by 9:00 A.M. along with over 40 other clans representing not only Ontario but also hosts from Michigan, Pennsylvania, Florida, New York and Quebec.

Then the crowds descended. In fact, the stream of visitors was so large and consistent that I was not able to escape from our displays for more than a minute or two until 5:00 P.M. Like many other festivals, the Fergus Games offers passports for the children (and a few adults) to have stamped. I should have kept count as I am sure there were hundreds leaving little time to discuss heraldry, tartans, crests, the monarchy and Scottish history. I played games with the children, pretended to chop a few heads off from willing fathers, and shared more than a few "wee drams" of 12 year old single malt Aberfeldy Scotch with the grown-up children. Regrettably, I had no Kincaids visit the tent but I was able to hand out seven applications and brochures to people who had friends who were Kincaids. We will have to see what becomes of those in the future.

Beside the Clan Kincaid Tent was Clan Logan. They won the Clan Tent of the Year Award. It was their first visit to the Fergus Festival and they were very impressed at their warm welcome. There was an entertainment tent very close so we were regaled with Scottish stories and songs all day long. Nearby was also the sheep shearing demonstration and a very talented stone carver which also drew crowds.

The Clan Village went on hold after 5:00 P.M. It was time for a dinner of overpriced but tasty fish and chips downed with a couple of pints of well deserved "Canadian" accompanied by the strains of Scottish music at the Highland Pub. This was followed by a few hours sleep in the car which was conveniently located just behind our tent.

Sunday was another gorgeous day. It was Family Day and the first visitors arrived about 8:30 A.M. and continued throughout the day. I did take a 30 minute break to join with the Clan Logan Commissioner for tea and scones graciously provided by Games Host David Radley, who did an outstanding job of making the clans feel welcome and appreciated. The crowds waned and the Clan Commissioners began folding up flags and banners about 3:30 P.M. I bid good-bye until next year to my many old and new friends and fellow Commissioners and began the two hour drive home to celebrate our 45th wedding anniversary. A wonderful and memorable weekend. Now to pack for Scotland and the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo with our Chief, President and other Commissioners and Members along with their families.

THE DEFENDER

Greetings from the Communication Director

Ahhhhh Kincaid!! I hope everyone enjoys this special edition of The Defender. It was a real treat getting to view and share these photos of the Clan Kincaid at the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo and the CKAI trip continuation afterwards. A special thanks for the photos to Madam Arabella, Giles Inglis-Jones, David R. Kincaid, Barbara Kincaid, and James Brisbin for sharing these photos and your memories of this beautiful occasion with us all. I did try to the photos "in progression" to align with the Chief's Column article so feel free to flip back and forth between the article and photos for a better comprehensive visual of that great day.

A most wonderful birthday to you, Mary! Thank you for sharing with us, Melody!

I invite all clansfolk to please send me any articles, announcements, and photos that you would like to see in a future Defender issue. You can email me at Communications@clankincaid.org. The website is www.clankincaid.org. Please reach out with any questions!

2017 Embro Scottish Festival - Submitted by James Brisbin (L-91)

Embro is a little village in Zorra Township, Oxford, Ontario. What it may lack in population, it certainly makes up for in heart and Scottish hospitality. Each year for 80 years the Zorra Caledonian Society has hosted the Embro Highland Games on Canada Day - July First. This year's event was expected to draw 3,500 visitors to see the heavy events, dancers, dog trials, historical displays, food vendors, pipe bands, World Champion Tug of War contests and of course a variety of Clan displays.

This year Clan Kincaid shared the north end of the ice rink (no ice) with ten other clans. (The south end hosted the dance competition) It was a time to introduce a couple of new Commissioners to the games and enjoy a reunion with several friends from years past and other games. North American Champion Bass Drummer David Kincaid spent some time with the Kincaid display between playing responsibilities. The Worshipful Master of my Masonic Lodge dropped by for a visit as did a family from my church. I did have a family stop by who had a close friend who is a Kincaid and they promised to share my contact information for possible future membership.

While not inundated with Kincaids, the Kincaid display did have an important role in educating visitors about Scottish history, toys for children, the clan system, tartans, heraldry and of course Scottish drinking traditions.

Mid afternoon was interrupted by mother nature who sent a deluge of rain to settle the dust and drive many visitors to seek shelter in the arena which enhanced the flow of guests to the clan displays. There is always something good about rain.

All packed up and off for home by 5:00 PM then away to a beautiful fireworks display celebrating Canada's 150th Birthday. Happy Birthday Canada!

James Brisbin, and the Jones' enjoying the festival!
