The Chief's Column — Madam Arabella Kincaid of Kincaid

Fellow Kincaids, Kinsfolk, Friends,

Spring 2020 has such a fantastic ring to it! It is a strange time for us all with the Coronavirus swirling around causing all sorts of concerns. As it appears it will be the elderly and infirm that will be hardest hit, we will see once again that those who have family around them will fare the best. Illness and Isolation would be a tough combination for anyone.

I write this I am heading south on a train leaving Edinburgh behind me after a Chiefs' meeting this morning. I can see snow on the hills in the distance and in the fields nearest the track, there are new born lambs. Spring is a time of renewal and renewed hope, and the new life of flora and fauna delight us all. Renewed with optimism and energy, we throw off the heavy coverings of winter and start to think of summer and holidays. The main date on the horizon for us at home is the Kincaid/Lennox Gathering and Tour next year organised for us by our very own James Brisbin. We are truly blessed to have James in our Clan, without him many of us would never have made the trips we have or enjoyed getting to know increasing numbers of our extended family through the tours and Gatherings he organises. Thank you James! Having the fun of Gathering with our Lennox cousins (although most of us will be very distantly related if at all) will add a new dimension to the proceedings and I for one, am full of anticipation for what I know we can be assured of as a well organised and interestingly planned itinerary.

We understand these days that strong social connections are important yet alongside this fact "social capital" is in decline. Communities are more fluid, neighbours interact less than in yesteryear, and people spend more time online and less time joining social clubs or societies. I read that new support networks are urgently needed and I think "How blessed are we"! We Kincaid's have a structure called the Clan Kincaid Association International! We are all the richer for the time so generously given, and it seems joyfully given in the running of our Association. I would like to take this opportunity to thank President David and our First Lady - Barbara and the Board of Officers who keep our Kincaid ship not only afloat, but blazing a trail. (I think I may be mixing my metaphors there!). And our Commissioners – each and every one of you standing as a visible sign of how our Clan has flourished especially in North America and spread out magnificently. Having a sense of purpose is also strongly correlated with better health. The Clan Tents that take time to plan for, set up, and then host all take time and considerable effort. Now we can be sure that this is actually a health-giving exercise!

I hope that we can be an organisation that increasingly cherishes every age group within. The beautiful children that are growing up with their sense of belonging and rooted in their family history have an advantage over those cut loose from a wider family. As a family with children myself, I have found it to be precious indeed that we have ties that transcend national borders because they are blood ties, historical ties, and part of our clan story which in turn is part of our family story. For our more senior members (and this is the year that the number of people over 65 has outstripped those under 5 in the world) we need your life wisdom, your stories, your skills. Please write down your memories, pass on your skills and tell your stories! I have learned recently that in Japan there are organisations to help their senior citizens use their abilities in their communities – be they calligraphy skills, or quilting or packing goods. The increased well-being that comes from purpose is marked. Each one of us has something to bring to the beautiful structure that is Clan Kincaid.

The clan system has always been about looking out for the kindred and protecting the geographical area of the clan. Our area is now beyond what any of our early ancestors could have imagined – an entirely different shape and form and yet the possibilities for that same ‘looking out’ for our kin and fighting for our territory, of being clan, and ‘doing family’ together is crucial for our wellbeing! The whole entity of clan is powerful, probably deeper, wider and more powerful that we understand – and I know I am supremely blessed to be in this together with all of you.

“God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve on another.” 1 Peter 4:10

“If your gift is to encourage, be encouraging; if it is giving, then give generously; if God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.” Romans 12.8

Yours aye,
Arabella.

A Message from the President

The year 2019 has been a very successful year for Clan Kincaid Association International. We added 32 new members for a total of total of 296 family, life and annual members. Our total assets from when I became president in 2014 have grown from $7,270.59 to total of $19,383.00 which includes our General Fund operational, savings accounts plus the Wee Shopper ending balance. I'm able to report this thanks to the wonderful job our Clan Kincaid Team reports provided during the February 2020 Annual General Meeting. Following the Annual General Meeting $1,250 has been added to the operational account. The minutes of the 2020 Annual General Meeting will be provided elsewhere in this newsletter.

Linda Hoskins, Clan Kincaid Secretary, has resigned due to health concerns. I thank her for the services she has provided to Clan Kincaid over the years. If you know of any member of Clan Kincaid that would like to serve as Clan Kincaid Secretary, please let me know. I am very pleased that James Brisbin and his support team are planning a Clan Kincaid/Lennox Gathering during the summer of 2021. I encourage members and friends to plan to attend. In the past these events have created pleasant and special memories spent with our kinfolk while touring Scotland.

Clan Kincaid/Lennox Gathering 2021

(Submitted by James R. Brisbin L-91)

“May we live in interesting times.”

Thus the sentiment that has been oft repeated in times of crisis or perceived crisis. It may seem challenging to consider travel plans when all about us seems to be crumbling but “hope springs eternal”.

In the past 100 years we have seen and recovered from two World Wars, a Great Depression, the Cold War, Recessions of the 1980s and the financial crisis of 2008, Terrorism and the spread of SARS, Ligonier's Disease, AIDS, Swine and Bird flu and now Covid19.

Nothing is implied that the current crisis is unimportant, only that we must be confident that there is light at the end of the tunnel and things will return to normal sometime in the future.

One bright opportunity that might await you could be the chance to return to the lands of your ancestors as part of the Clan Kincaid/Lennox Gathering 2021 in Scotland. It is now 17 months away so there will be lots of time, hopefully, for things to calm down and make a return toward normal. This could be your chance to enhance your pride in family/Scottish heritage whether it might be your first visit to the “auld sod” or a return trip to broaden your perspective especially in the company of like-minded people meeting new kinfolk and renewing old friendships.

Within “The Defender” you will find a detailed itinerary for the Core Tour and the optional Pre and Post Tour Extensions. Please examine the trip in detail. If you have any questions, you are encouraged to contact me at jrbrisbin11@gmail.com or 519-297-2011. Details about making reservations and payments can be made by contacting Scotland Tours. Their contact information is part of the itinerary.

There will be limited spaces available so it is therefore in your best interests to reserve early to ensure your place for this extraordinary tour.

“This I’ll Defend” Now Available Online in Digital Format

When Brigadier Bill Kincaid died over three years ago, only a few copies of his book, “This I’ll Defend: The Story of the Kincaids,” remained and they all were quickly sold. His widow, Hilary, clearly desired to reprint the book as a memorial to her late husband for the benefit of the Clan Kincaid Association, its members and the general public, with no financial gain to herself.

With the help of Aaron Smith, Assistant Manager of the Genealogy Center at the Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, Indiana, the 320-page volume was digitized and posted on the “Internet Archive” website at the following web address:

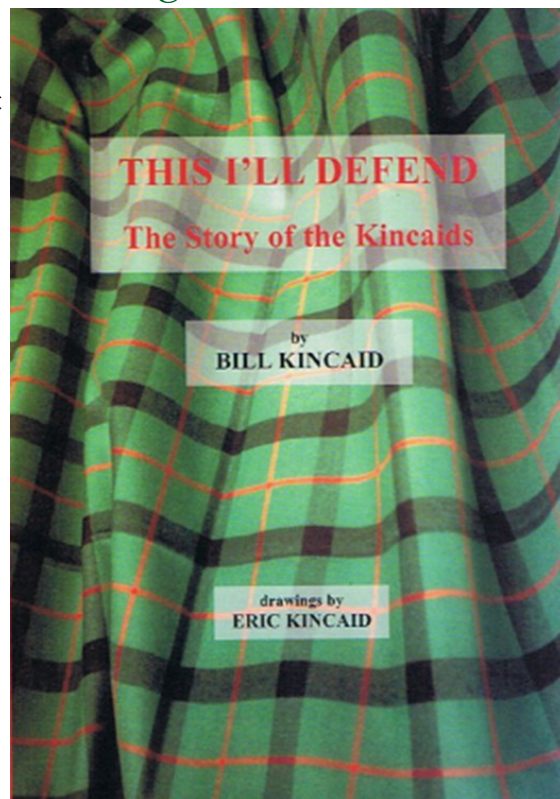

<https://archive.org/details/thisilldefendsto00kinc>

The book is available online (in the public domain) for free in a variety of formats. It also is on the Family Search website at the following web address:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/books> (Search Digital Library: This I’ll Defend)

The Wee Shopper also plans to offer hard-copy “print-on-demand” books on a limited basis. We are now exploring various options for both hard-cover and paperback special-order books. While we cannot quote exact prices at this time, please let us know if you may be interested in purchasing your own copy of “This I’ll Defend: The Story of the Kincaids.”

Please contact Wee Shopper Manager Rick Kincaid at ShopClanKincaid@gmail.com if you are interested in purchasing your own copy or copies of “This I’ll Defend” and whether you are interested in one or more hard-cover and/or paperback copies.

Membership Update

Dear Clan members and family,

In November we had a computer crash (mine) along with a December storm that took out our internet. I now have a new computer, new router, new modem, and new wiring inside and outside the house. Oh, the joys of technology!

Due to all our technical problems, renewal notices did not get sent out as planned in November. Renewal notices have been sent out finally and I feel that things are getting back in order. Thank goodness! I already have renewals flooding my mailbox daily. Also, people have been great about sending renewals on their own. Thank you!

Here is my annual report as of today:

28 active family members	137 active Life members (7 new)
(9 new, 9 converted from annual)	131 active annual members (16 new)

Already we have six new Annual memberships, two new Family Annual memberships, and one new Life membership for 2020. I am excited to see how Clan Kincaid International Association will continue to grow this year.

Remember that memberships are great gifts for any time of the year. Annual memberships are $25, Family Annual memberships are $35, and Life memberships are a one-time amount of $250.

Also, if anyone is interested; I still have seven photo albums from last summer, Grandfather Mountain in NC. They are $40 each.

Donna Knauss , Membership Secretary (L-113)

Sarasota Highland Games - Beverly Kincaid , Florida Commissioner (L-138)

I hosted a Kincaid tent at the 26th Sarasota Highland Games on Saturday, February 1. This is a small festival and I nearly skipped it this year; but it's only a half hour away and so I felt it was important to support it. Sarasota is a popular, well-populated area of Florida, and it's surprising that more clans aren't represented at this one.

We were one of only about a dozen clans and organizations attending, including the Scottish Heritage Society of Sarasota, Inc., who hosts this festival each year. My husband had a music commitment that day and so my son, Christopher Hanson, traveled over from the Atlantic side of FL to join me. A driving rain in the morning forced us to clear our table of Kincaid items. Thankfully the rain departed later in the afternoon and we enjoyed viewing activities from our tent. I took a photo of one of the bands performing, and if you enlarge that photo, you'll see our tent banner in the background.

56th Annual Phoenix Highland Games - Karen Davis, Arizona Commissioner (L-101)

Phoenix Arizona never disappoints with plenty of sunshine for its annual Scottish Games. This year was no exception. At 85 degrees there was plenty of sunny weather all around for a weekend of tartan, pipes, drums and athletic games. This was an especially busy year with 50+ clan tents and organizations along with a steady flow of people enjoying their Scottish connection. Even though Saturday didn't bring any Kincaids to our tent, we had a number of non-Kincaid visitors with questions and tales. Sunday was greeted with a visit from Jennifer Kitchens of Queen Creek and her husband. Jennifer's maiden name is Kincaid, her father is Jerry Kincaid. We were as happy to see her as she was to find a Kincaid clan tent. I provided her with a membership package and she and her husband shared some of their experiences from their Scotland trip last year including a visit to Kincaid House. We also had a visit from Hope Singleton, 93 years young, from Glendale and her son. Hope's Kincaid connection was through marriage. There were plenty of wee ones both days gathering passport stamps for their prizes. It's always nice to see so many families in attendance. All in all it was a great weekend. This report is respectfully submitted by Karen Davis, Arizona Commissioner.

Greetings from the Communication Director

As we are all aware, COVID-19 has consumed much of our attention, infusing everything with uncertainty. I hope that this edition of the Defender can bring some hope, and some distraction! There's nothing like planning for a future trip, and the upcoming Scotland trip is the perfect one!

I invite all clans folk to please send me any articles, announcements, and photos that you would like to see in a future Defender issue. You can email me at Commdirectorclankincaid@gmail.com. Please reach out with any questions!

In kinship, Emily Silversparre (F-03)

Lennox Castle—James Brisbin (L-91)

The year 1800 saw the marriage of John Kincaid of that Ilk and Cecilia Lennox. Thus were merged two great families. The Kincaids of Campsie were recorded as early as the 13th century and the ancient Lennox family held the earldom between Loch Lomond and Dumbarton dating from the early 1200s. John and Cecilia presumably settled onto married life in Kincaid House (now the Kincaid House Hotel and Wedding Venue) which was rebuilt in 1812. To John and Cecilia was born a son, John Lennox Kincaid who succeeded his aunt in 1831 as Chief of the Lennox and changed his surname to Kincaid-Lennox. In 1832 he succeeded his father as Kincaid of Kincaid.

As a great landowner in the Parrish of Campsie, John Lennox Kincaid-Lennox called upon the services of the Glasgow Architect, David Hamilton, to construct a home befitting the family's rank and position. Thus between 1837 and 1841 was Lennox Castle constructed. Unfortunately, the cost of building such a beautiful stately home became a burden to the family who were only to enjoy its opulence for 80 years when the castle was finally sold to pay debts and consolidate holdings elsewhere in Britain.

Lennox Castle became a hospital and continued as such until the early 1990s when it was sold and began to deteriorate. Arsonists set fire to the Castle in 2008 and it now stands in ruins awaiting decisions as to its future. The quartered arms of Kincaid and Lennox still proudly adorn the front entrance of Lennox Castle.
