The Chief's Column — Madam Arabella Kincaid of Kincaid

Fellow Kincaids, Kinfolk, Friends,

I would like to begin by saying “Thank you Emily!”, not only for once again producing our Christmas edition of The Defender (which I always particularly enjoy), but also for your column in the last edition. I was captivated by the story of Daisy Olive Kincaid’s life! How life has changed in many ways. Anyone these days who took part in a 1000-mile hunting expedition would be being written about all over the place as an extraordinary phenomenon, and that would be with all the satellite navigation systems and modern comforts for warmth and safety. Although, reading again, perhaps it was her dogs (which she probably bred) that went on the expedition rather than Daisy – whichever way we look at it, living on a homestead in Alaska must not have been an easy life. Kincaids have indeed made their mark in many and diverse places.

On a different point, James Brisbin is a man without whom many of us would never have met each other. This has been said before, but it must be said again. Frankly it could not be over-emphasised that we — Clan Kincaid and the Association in particular — owe James and Carol a huge debt of gratitude. Carol for supporting James’s epic journeys and James for the thousands and thousands of miles he has cheerfully travelled over many years, always with great warmth; a Winnie-the-Pooh duvet; a smile; and more than a story or two, gathering and inspiring Kincaids from North, South, East, and West! James has encouraged so many to play their part in Clan Kincaid today. Our lives have been enriched beyond measure. I for one cannot imagine life without our Clan Kincaid Association and all that it means to us as a family, as well as the fun we have had at dinners and gatherings and just around a table together sharing food and stories with many of you. It is one thing to know that we are a part of this great and ancient family, but to be a part of a dynamic living breathing Clan with a reach that spans the globe is an extraordinary thing indeed. James — without your sheer good heartedness and tireless travelling, without your vision and gathering and organising, and your ability to not only imagine the possibilities but make them a reality time and again over the last few decades, we would be so much poorer in the knowledge of our kin. I am sure I speak for all of us when I say a resounding - thank you James and Carol!

This year, the Court of the Lord Lyon has been celebrating the 350th Anniversary of the Public Register of All Arms and Bearings in Scotland. Although the Lyon Court itself was established 490 years ago, the public register came later in 1672 by an Act of the Scottish Parliament. There is going to be a big service in St Giles’s Cathedral in December which sounds like it will be a sight to behold as groups with Coats of Arms from schools to Armigerous organisations are being invited to join a procession to the Cathedral.

And so, we move forward, at all times rooted in the good soil of our collective past, under the overarching protection of the Most High, and onward in the great flow of life ready to punctuate the year as we celebrate Christmas once again.

I am closing with the beautiful words in the first verse of a beloved Christmas hymn written in 1849 by US Clergyman E H Sears.

It came upon a midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From Angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold;
'Peace on the earth; good will to man
From Heavens all gracious King'.
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

May we know times of stillness this season as we re-connect with one another and perhaps even with ourselves!

Merry Christmas and every blessing through all things for the year ahead, Arabella.

"The Christmas Festival" —painted by Thomas Kinkade

President's Message

Dear Clan Kincaid Association International members,

As this year comes to a close I look back in retrospect. Having served as President of Clan Kincaid Association International for nine years I am ready to turn leadership as President over to Hugh Kincaid.

The results of the election from our Returning Officer are included in this edition of "The Defender". I have enjoyed my tenure as President and feel that, with the help of an outstanding leadership team, we have accomplished a great deal. When I took over in 2014 we did not have a savings account and only a balance of $5,968 in our checking account. Today we have $18,350 in checking and $6,279 in savings for a total of $24,629. Clan Kincaid Association International has been registered as an Organization with the State of Kentucky for many years. In 2015 we were able to apply for 501 (c) (3) status and I received notification on August 13, 2015 that our application was approved and Clan Kincaid is now a nonprofit organization registered with the U.S. Federal Government. Topher Kincaid, our Treasurer, has all the necessary information to file our annual reports for both the State of Kentucky and the Department of Internal Revenue Service.

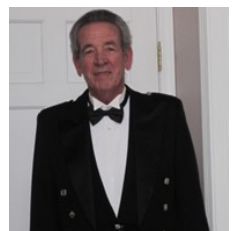

My thanks and appreciation to our remarkable Board of Officers for volunteering and giving of their time and talent so Clan Kincaid operates as a coordinated team. In reviewing my tenure from 2014 through 2022, we recall the enjoyment of our Gatherings both in the U.S. and Scotland and arranged by James Brisbin and his travel contacts in Scotland. In August 2014 we traveled to Scotland for a tour of our Homeland and attended the Royal Military Tattoo at Edinburgh Castle. In September 2016 we traveled to Estes Park Colorado for their 40th Highland Games where our Clan Chief, Madam Arabella was Honored Guest and led the Parade of Clans. In 2017 once again we returned to Scotland and the Royal Military Tattoo on the Royal Mile and Edinburgh Castle, where our beloved Clan Chief, Madam Arabella, was one of a select group of Clan Chiefs honored on the Castle's Esplanade. (See "The Defender" Issue #90, September 2017.) In July 2019 we attended one of the largest Highland Games in North America at Grandfather Mountain, Linville, NC. James Brisbin and Hugh Kincaid coordinated Clan Kincaid attendance at this superb Gathering. Madam Arabella attended with her two sons, Angus and Dominic. Madam Arabella was Honored Guest and opened the Games, led the Parade of Clans and also later closed the Games.

So many fond memories were made sharing our heritage and kinship over the years.

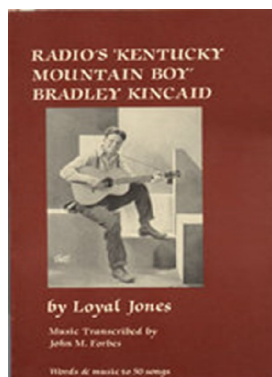

We look forward to possible future events celebrating our Scottish heritage with our fellow Clan Kincaid members. I send my best wishes for continued success and I will be available to help in any way. Thank you for the opportunity to serve.

May you have a blessed Christmas and a great year ahead.

David Kincaid
Clan Kincaid President

Christmas Pudding Balls Recipe

—Madam Arabella Kincaid of Kincaid, courtesy of Madam Heather

This receipt was tucked away in one of Madam Heather's books having been cut out of a newspaper at some point. I have taped it back together and am planning to try using it this year if I have some leftover pudding! Having live through the war, she, like so many of her generation, never wasted a thing!

Christmas Pudding Balls:

Re-steam Christmas pudding until it is malleable. Shape the mixture into little 2 to 2 and half oz balls. Dip these into raw beaten strained egg and then in ground almonds. Count the number you have made and refrigerate until needed. Then assemble a matching number of diamond shapes in softened Angelica and halved red lace cherries.

Just before serving, heat oil in your deep fryer. When it reaches the temperature at which a scrap of raw potato seethes furiously when dipped in put in the prepared Christmas pudding balls. Allow them to fry to a nice golden brown.

Arrange them on a serving dish. Stab one diamond of Angelica into the top of each, press cut side of cherry down beside each diamond, dust icing sugar over all to simulate snow.

2022 Board of Directors Election Results

Below are the results from our Clan Kincaid Association International 2022 election. Please review and feel free to reach out if you have any questions.

Official Clan Kincaid Ballot – June 2022

Test Your Knowledge of Scotland — James Brisbin (L-91)

Here are a few questions to test your knowledge of Scotland – its land and history. Try it on your own, as a family or among friends over a wee dram of the water of life. The answers can be found elsewhere in this issue of “The Defender”. Have fun and garner bragging rights where ye may!

1. What is the capital city of Scotland?
2. At 1,345 meters (4,411 feet), this is Scotland’s (and Britain’s) highest mountain.
3. The island of Ailsa Craig is famous for this sporting equipment.
4. What is King Charles III “official” residence in Scotland? (caution – it is not Balmoral Castle)
5. Whose body is buried in Dunfermline Abbey and his heart is buried in Melrose Abbey?
6. What is the name of the throne upon which the ancient kings of Scotland were crowned?
7. Where was the traditional burying ground of the ancient kings of Scotland?
8. How many Kings in Scotland and Britain were named James?
9. What is the unofficial National Anthem of Scotland?
10. The grave slabs that appear at the sealed entrance of the Kincaid-Lennox Mausoleum in the Clachan of Campsie date from early in what century?
11. The Kincaid House Hotel is in this town.
12. What is Scotland’s largest island by size?
13. What island is home to the cave of the giant Fingal?
14. What event took place on April 16th, 1746?
15. Where is “Bonnie” Prince Charles buried?
16. In what month is the “Edinburgh Fringe Festival” held?
17. Where are the “Honours of Scotland” (crown jewels) kept?
18. At 193 kilometers (110 miles), this is Scotland’s longest river.
19. The Saltire – Scotland’s flag depicts the cross of this saint.
20. The modern “devolved” Parliament first met in 19???

Genius Bonus Question: This King was christened “John” but changed his name upon becoming King.

A Scottish Christmas Story - Hugh Kincaid (L-174)

Several years ago I asked some friends I worked at Disney with to help me with a project. We made an audio recording of the Nativity story performed in Scottish dialect. It is based on a book I found on a visit to Scotland called The Glasgow Gospel by Jamie Stuart.

Mr. Stuart became internationally famous when, at the age of 71, he became a bestselling author with The Glasgow Gospel – which tells the stories of the Gospel in the everyday language of Glaswegians. He continued to have a remarkable writing career until his death at the age of 95.

Paul Mungall, the narrator of the story was a natural choice for the project. An old Disney compatriot of mine, he was born and raised in Glasgow. Throughout the years he has tried to teach me the nuances of the Glaswegian dialect. Unfortunately, my hillbilly upbringing would never submit to his efforts.

The recording has been passed around via email, at Christmas time, for a couple of decades and has been heard in all around the world from Jacksonville to Japan and Augusta to Australia.

I have just posted it on YouTube and hope that you enjoy listening to it as much as we enjoyed creating it. Please share it with others. Here is the link:

DNA Matters- Coleen Paderewski-Kincaid (L-177)

In 2009 I traveled to Scotland to join my cousin Sherrye Dix and meet other members of the Kincaid Clan. The ancient Celtic spirit beckoned me to my Scottish roots. I was enriched by the history of visits to St. Giles Cathedral, Melrose Abbey, Jedburgh Abbey, Oban, Kilchurn Castle, William Wallace Statue, Rosslyn Chapel, Glencoe, Loch Ness, Stirling, Mugdock Castle, Edinburgh, Lennox Castle, and the Kincaid lands. I couldn't get enough of my family history. I was enveloped with the Kincaid Clan. I wanted to know more. I was encouraged to take a DNA test at the gathering of Clans in Edinburgh for the Kincaid Clan. I took the test with great anticipation. The test was with Family Tree DNA. I waited weeks in excitement for the results. Yes, it was confirmed I am a Kincaid by blood. All my grandparents had passed away by the time I was in second grade, so I was fascinated with who I was and where I came from. My grandmother was Margaret Mary Kincaid (also known as Maggie), and my great-grandfather was John Francis Kincaid was born in 1856 in Washington, Missouri. The journey began as I was determined to know more about history. My next lead was John Laurent Kincaid, born in 1824 in Missouri. I could see a trend going on with the name "John." I felt at a dead end as I asked myself, "is there not another name for a Kincaid other than John?" How is my connection to Scotland going to come about? Thank goodness I read an article in the Defender from someone in Maine. I swiftly wrote to this lovely lady and began a correspondence. Soon to my amazement, I found out we were related. Finally, I felt my journey could continue to find my roots in Scotland.

To no surprise, my next relative was.. wait for it.. yes, it was another John. John D. Kincaid was born in 1791 in Lincoln, Maine. Yes, one more, John Kincaid, was born in 1762 in Wiscasset, Maine. Samuel Kincaid was born in 1724 in Oyster River, New Hampshire. My next question was, why did the family move from Oyster River, New Hampshire, to Maine? I wrote back to my cousin in Maine with this question. The Indians had killed off some of the Kincaid family, and the survivors moved to Maine. Next was Naphtali Kincaid, born in 1695 in Oyster River, New Hampshire. My next question was, will I ever be able to find out when my ancestors came from Scotland? I made inquiries on Ancestry.com. I soon took another DNA test from Ancestry.com. I hit the mother lode and got answers.

My DNA was the same as Family Tree (no surprise), but Ancestry.com gave me more personal information and family connections. I found David Kincaid, born in 1664 in Stirlingshire, Scotland. I continue to get updated information from Ancestry.com daily. When I was growing up, my Mom maintained I was Irish, Scottish, and French. My Dad claimed I was Polish. To my delight, I found out I'm a European mutt. I have ancestors from Scotland, Ireland, England, Poland, Germany, France, Netherlands, Norway, Denmark, and Sweden.

As some of you know, I met my husband, Roger Allen Kincaid, at Grand Father Mountain. Before we married, I bought him a DNA test from Ancestry.com as a Christmas present. His results returned, and I began his family tree search for his ancestors. Yes, we are cousins, but our common ancestor was 400 years ago.

If you find a royal line in your family, you will be able to get further back in time on your family tree. Don't be discouraged by this statement, as I learned you may have Royal Blood Lines and may not know it. Your DNA is the magic in this case.

I strongly recommend getting a DNA test. No matter your DNA process, it will be a journey of excitement and anticipation. Who knows, maybe I'm your cousin?

In Kinship,

Coleen Paderewski-Kincaid

McMinnville Highland Games - Charlene Kincaid Johnson (L-161)

October 1st and 2nd, Clan Kincaid was represented at the annual Highland Games set in McMinnville Oregon. The sun was shining, and the crowds were huge. Clan Kincaid was present for the two days. We had a wonderful double tent with huge displays of our history and people. Some Kincaid cousins were able to be with us. We had no Highland Games in Portland this year! So we went where the Games were!

Our friends brought along Sir George a life-sized representation of someone in full armor. He drew quite a crowd all day. Many were excited to take a picture next to George. A lot of people visited our tent including some Kincaids! Many were asking questions regarding the Military Tattoo of 2017 that many of our Clan attended.

We had a great time sharing with them that we were one of the Honored Clans! We shared about spending time with Madam Arabella and her family and so many other kinsmen. Having photos in our tent was a real plus in generating questions. There were approx. 50 clan tents and over 1,000 in paid attendance for the two day event. Not bad for a small town.

A wee dram was in attendance as well this year. ;)

Scottish Shortbread Recipe - Emily Silversparre (F--003)

A simple Christmas classic and all around delicious treat. Shortbread really is only 3 ingredients in the purest form (though I add vanilla sometimes to add another layer of flavor). It's a long standing family favorite and one of my favorites of all time.

- 1 cup (240 ml) all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup (120 ml) of butter (salted, room temp)
- 1/3 cup (80 ml) powdered or confectioners sugar
- Splash of vanilla (extra optional touch)

Preheat your oven to 325* F. Then mix your ingredients together until the dough is clumped together and there is no loose flour. Once blended, pat your dough into a large disk shape on a greased pan, or you can roll it out and cut into shapes of your choosing and transfer the cutouts to a greased pan. If you go for the disk, make sure to make cuts into the disk to help with separating the cookies once baked, like cutting a pizza pie. Bake your shortbread for 25-30 mins until barely golden at the edges. Cut outs may need less time!

Remove from the pan and allow to cool, then enjoy!

Chief Commissioner's Report

As the year comes to a close, with the busy Holiday Season upon us, it is time to think of the coming new year. We had about 10 events hosted this year. Hopefully, the world will not continue to face the multiple issues that closed us off from each other in 2023. May the Highland Games in the coming years be stronger than ever. A few commissioners have already announced some of their Highland Games dates for 2023. I appreciate this. Please let us know when your dates for Clan Tents are known.

Just a reminder that our Annual Meeting will be in Febd. 2023. Please let me know of any items you'd like to address to our Board of Officers so that I can present them to the board.

Clan Kincaid Association International is still looking for members to volunteer as State Commissioner's to assist with growth in our membership and mission to share our heritage story with all Kincaid descendants. If you are interested in volunteering, please get in touch with me. A special Thank You to our active Commissioner's. Your time and efforts are greatly appreciated. The commissioners' that utilized our Clan Kincaid Banner's have been given great reviews.

Outgoing President David Kincaid deserves a great big Thank You for the nine years of dedication and leadership he provided to Clan Kincaid Association, International. In closing, Coleen and I wish all of our cousins a Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and a Prosperous New Year!

Roger Kincaid (L-149)

Greetings from the Communications Director

Hello All,

Winter has arrived here with multiple rounds of snow, to my children's delight. This time of year has also brought cold after cold, so we're enjoying the snow from inside huddled over our teas and hot cocoa waiting for the runny noses to stop. Even so, there's much to be thankful for, starting with this great community that is CKAI and the support and care from James Brisbin and David Kincaid over these past years. Thank you both for all that you have done for our Clan Kincaid Association International. We are indebted to you both for your years of dedication to our wonderful global community.

To all our readers, please feel free to send in family announcements, anniversaries, weddings, births, deaths, photos, celebrations, birthdays, and Kincaid tidbits for sharing. We would like to include Kincaid life's coming and goings in a column each issue! Have a family receipt or recipe? Any family lore or story? We would love to showcase it here in the Defender.

May you all have a safe and festive holiday season, and a Happy New Year! Here's to 2023!

In kinship,

Emily Silversparre (F—003)

Utah Commissioner's Report

A gentle snow has arrived in the Salt Lake Valley, just in time for Thanksgiving Day. The Christmas decorations have been displayed, as Coleen and I are preparing for our family gathering on Thanksgiving Day. Life events prevented our attendance at the Moab, UT games in Oct.

We plan on hosting Clan Tents at the Salt Lake Highland Games in June 2023. The Moab Highland Games in Oct. 2023. Details will be provided when dates and locations have been announced.

May you all have a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving Celebration.

In Service to Clan Kincaid,

Roger A. Kincaid (L-149)

While cleaning my desk, a seemingly endless task, I came across a letter written by my mother (Olivia P. Brisbin 1908-2004) in August of 1958. It was addressed to my brother (John David Kincaid Brisbin 1937-2019) who was travelling in France at the time and to my father and me while we were traveling in Scotland.

The letter is two pages in length, single spaced, typed. It is full of news mostly of a personal nature but one paragraph stands out as having particular importance to Kincaid history of which my mother dedicated many years of research. This paragraph deals with the sale of Lennox Castle by the Kincaid Family in March of 1927. Here is an exact transcript of the paragraph in question.

It is so nice to know that the Kincaid name is still respected and has some prominence in Scotland today. Glad you will have my letter re: Kincaid House before going to Campsie. Mr. Moir is a remarkable man – positively psychic. Kincaid-Lennox Castle was sold 24 & 25 March 1927, at auction. The estate contained 8,650 acres, Lennox Arms Hotel, Kincaid Print Works, Inchbelly Sand Pits near Kirkintilloch, 9 Dairy, Stock and sheep raising farms, 7 small residences, several excellent shootings, well-secured feus (and this is spelled correctly) and leasehold rents, producing L-700 per annum, etc. (From newspaper clipping in Grace Kincaid scrap-book).

With the advent of the internet, email, zoom meetings and inexpensive telephone service, the art of letter writing seems to be disappearing. I have reams of letters written by my parents as they pursued their research. I am constantly discovering new tidbits to add to the family history. It is hoped that many of our family will continue to preserve their family legacy for future generations.

Christmas Blessing - John Kinkead (L-119)

"As we observe the season changing, may we rejoice that the One who started it all is still in control. May His blessings be ours as we follow with praise and joy."

- Rev. John Kinkead

18. The River Tay is Scotland's longest river.
19. The Scottish Saltire displays the Cross of St. Andrew – the patron saint of Scotland.
20. Scotland modern parliament first officially met July 1, 1999.

Genius Question Answer: In May 1390 parliament granted John permission to change his regnal name to Robert III, probably in part to maintain the link back to Robert I (the Bruce) but also to disassociate himself from King John Balliol. Robert III was the great grandson of Robert the Bruce and the father of James I.
